

Newsletter

I Our Solar System

This week, infants explored our solar system through sensory play, art, music, movement, and books while building curiosity and early learning skills.

T1 Messy Mixtures

This week, toddlers explored messy mixtures through sensory play, art, simple experiments, and hands-on activities that encourage curiosity and discovery.

T2 Family Travels

This week, T2 students explored familiar routines and family connections through dramatic play, building, sensory activities, and stories.

August 31st - September 4th

Here is a look into our wonderful week at the Kingdom!

B Golden Bear

This week, beginners explored bears through stories, building, sensory play, and hands-on activities that encourage creativity, counting, and discovery.

I All About Me

This week, Intermediate students explored emotions, name writing, fingerprints, colors, shapes, and sensory experiences through science, literacy, and hands-on activities.

PK Yo Soy, I Am

This week, PreK students explored the letter C, name writing, Spanish language, family traditions, celebrations, and music!

K Kindergarten/ Kindergarten Enrichment

This week, K/KE students built a classroom community while exploring literacy, math, social studies, and creative self-expression.

BREAKING NEWS

9.7 Closed for Labor Day!

9.11 Parents Night Out!
Grandparents Day!

9.24 ECLC Art Show!

..... EC

